BLACK RIVER HIGH SCHOOL Sullivan, Ohio The Echo

Foreword

Once again an eventful year is brought to a close at Black River High School. There are happy memories and sad memories for each of us as we look back over the year. The end of the year is a time for the Freshman to look forward to September and a return to school. For the Sophomore it is just another summer vacation to anticipate. The Junior sees it as his last summer vacation while still a student at Black River. For the Senior it is the final "good-bye." For all it is the end of another year.

The 1960 ECHO attempts to record these memories for all to remember. The editors wish to take this opportunity to thank anyone who has had a part in producing this year's annual.

Mary Bridgett is quite a lass She's the secretary of our class She's good and has a kind heart And from her we'll all hate to part.

Dick Brooks is our basketball star We owe him very much by far He is a happy-go-lucky fellow And with Roberta he is very mellow.

Nancy Campbell is small, but mighty And you'll find she's very tidy She plans to enter the teaching profession And we all know this is no obsession.

Nancy Geiger is quite a gal Whom we all think is really swell She'll always greet you with a smile And you'll find she's happy all the while.

E.oise Gentry is quite a singer She plays the drums and hits the stinger She plans to go to Kent next fall And with her go best wishes from us all.

Don Hoffman is quite a guy
He has a laugh that money can't buy
He doesn't want to be a knight in shining
Armor
He just wants to be a plain old farmer.

Louise Howman is so kind and sweet A pleasure to know and a joy to meet Quiet and nice in all her ways We'll remember her the rest of our days.

Eric Kirvel, a boy we all know Someday hopes to be a ping pong pro His marks are good and his aim is high He succeeds in his every try.

Spencer Class Poem

Donald Beach, who is first on the list, From the classroom he is never missed. He's always happy for 3:45 to come, So he can don his coat and hurry home.

Bill Benford is the next in line, At playing basketball he's just fine. Ask him where he likes to park his feet, He'll say "a certain house on Liberty Street." Now for the small fry of our class June Kravitz, no one could surpass She may be little in size But we all think she's mighty nice.

George McWilliams comes next to mind A character like him is hard to find. Dragging is his favorite game To graduate is his only aim.

Linda Norns is known to all She usually studies in study hall Her talent in music is far above par And with her career we hope she goes far.

Jan Reinhardt, the guy whom each one of us knows Has a wisecrack handy wherever he goes He's always goofing in the hall He thinks that life's a regular ball.

Jim Rowe is an ambitious lad Concerning his looks, they are not at all bad To most of us he is no stranger He someday wants to be a forest ranger.

Pat Wandel is a girl and a half She's co-editor of the newspaper staff A secretary she wants to be And sit on some handsome boss's knee.

Kathy Weimer is quite dandy
She likes to make sugar candy
She loves to cook and to sew
And would hate to give up Bob, her beau.

Louise Welch is a cute little lass
And this fine girl completes our Senior class
In business she plans to seek a career
And we wish her the best from year to year.

Mr. Gottron, our class advisor
Has seen us through four years and made us much
Wiser
He's friendly, kind, and full of cheer
And we are sorry to say that our parting is near.

Patrick Myers, better known as Rick, Out of sports gets quite a kick. Around the girls he's rather shy, But really and truly he's quite a guy.

Now there's John Nagy, tall and thin, No one gets the best of him. In sports activities you will find, That he is quite athletically inclined. Calvin Breyley, third in line, A better student is hard to find. His aims are high, his marks are good, And he usually does the things he should.

Connie Converse is number four, And a blue-eyed blonde, like men adore. In typing class, she is very fast, As a secretary, she should be first class.

Ken Daigleish, the tallest of all, Likes best of all on Annie to call. And often times he's heard to sigh, "Why, oh, why can't I go to Buckeye?"

Carol Elliott whose eyes are green, Was chosen as our homecoming queen. All who know her thinks she's swell, Whatever she does, she does it well.

Robert Fitzgerald is our ice cream man, He eats all the sundaes and drumsticks he can. From doing his lessons, he likes to shirk, And it takes much effort to make him work.

Mary Ann Higgins says she wants to fly, And be a stewardess up in the sky. She'll get her man up there, we know, And then through life, together, they'll go.

Next is Sherrell, tall and fair, She and Jan make quite a pair. Here is one that we won't forget, For we'll all remember her as head majorette.

Bettie Jackson will graduate with us, She's always friendly and very ambitious. She works very hard for the F.T.A. In hopes that she'll be a teacher someday.

Dolores Larkey, often called Dee, A very good teacher she's certain to be. One thing she is anxious to know, Just how fast her Dad's car will go.

Jeanne Leiby with her ready smile,
Hopes some day Mike to bequille.
In school she is very steady
And with a helping hand is always ready.

Joan McGourt, who everyone knows well, Has big ambitions to hear him tell; But in study halls, he's not so serious, And talks until the teachers are furious. Dennis Neptune with his casual air, May be found almost anywhere. Especially in Wellington he is often seen, Going to visit his girl, Charlene.

Bobby Stroup is fast with the jokes, And sometimes the teachers he provokes. But we definitely know, he means no harm, For Bobby's really full of charm.

Betty Stuart has been here all twelve years, She's known for the way she helps lead the cheers.

Having a home is her special ambition, Where she can cook meals for Artie in her shiny new kitchen.

Carol Sutz has an academic mind, A better student would be hard to find. Someday a nurse she hopes to be, And find a job in some nursery.

Sandy Taylor, a dark haired lass, is always a favorite in our class. She'll cheer for the team and we know why, Several points were just made by her special guy.

Mary Walkden who is shy and serene, Wishes that she was at Bowling Green. In all of her classes she does quite well, She'll be a success, that you can tell.

Warren Waltz, a college prep, In all classes, he is really "hep." In all sports, he just soars, As he helps run up the score.

Artie Weidrick is full of fun.
In Betty's affections, he's next to none.
He's at his best on the football field,
When the opponents see him coming, they all yield.

Another Weidrick is a guy named Gary, After school he does not tarry. He jumps in his car and heads for the store, To grind the hamburger when you need more.

Robert Lee Williams is often seen Going places with a girl named Jean. A car mechanic he hopes to be, Then settle down with a family.

Larry Wolfe, it is hard to say, Just what he will do someday. But knowing Larry as we do, He'll not give up till his dreams come true.

Sullivan Senior Class Poem

First is Jim Bassett, who is quite shy, But for all the girls he does try. He says he's going to try his best, To travel all the way out west.

Virgil Berry is quite a lad, You never see him when he's mad. The teachers give him awful looks, When he gets out his hot rod books.

Next is Nina Blankenship with her southern drawl,

We like the way she says, "Hi ya ali" She drives her car all through the day, She lives her life in a carefree way.

There is a girl named Drema Sritt, With all the kids she's a hit. There is one thing she likes to buy, And that is clothes that catch her eye.

Norma Brit has long blonde hair, As for her complexion-it is fair. She is the quietest girl in the class, We all think she's quite a lass.

Here's Jill Clark, short end thin, Goes about with a little grin. We wish her happiness and all she'll need, For she is really and truly a friend, indeed.

Now Jean Clinker who's on the beam; To see a mouse she'd surely scream. She's always carefree, happy and gay, We hope her wishes come true in every way.

Dean Farnsworth, one of our best looking

Finds it easy to catch ail the girls eyes. When he plays basketball he's real neat, For with him playing we're harder to beat.

Ron Finley is our boy, He thinks school's a little toy. We would be wrong if we said he was calm, For as a football player he is a bomb.

Rusty Grenzebach, with eyes of blue, To our class shall be true. You'll always find him in a crowd, As a member of our class we are proud.

Ralph Kish, whom we all know, Always seems to be on the go. He does the chores and runs the tractor, But chasing girls is his main factor.

When Andy Liptak came our way, He drove from Cleveland all in a day. He came with wise cracks and new words, Some of his lingo is for the birds. Carol Mengerink is our all.

And with us kids she has a ball.

In her dancing she has the beat;

We all think she's real neat.

Emma Messmore has bright red hair. Her complexion is freckled, yet is fair. Her sister and she like to dance and sing, Rock and roll to her is the thing.

Okal Messmore with clarinet in hand, Adds a little something to our band. When she gets mad and starts to spout, Look out buddy, she'll chew you out.

Make Moskal is the guy, Who for the garls he has an eye. He laughs and giggles then he grins, Say, "Who's that girl that just walked in?"

Betty Orcult, walking down the hall, Seems to laugh at nothing at all. She never has a gruesome day; She's just good-natured, we all say.

Loretta Phillips who likes to sew, Really makes her machine go. There aren't many things that she can't make, Except, of course, a little ole' cake.

Linda Pifer cheers with ease, Her task, the school to please. We all think she's pretty great. And glad to have her as a classmate.

Dianne Priscantelli has a long, long, name. But we all like her just the same. With her black hair and her dark brown eyes, She's a hit with all the guys.

As secretary of our class, Marilyn Regal is the lass. When she goes to a record hop, She is chosen the cream of the crop.

Virginia Rollin likes to drive, Although late, she does arrive. She handles the car with the greatest care, At 35 miles an hour she always gets there.

Pat Shoulter with her wild, wild, tricks, Usually ends up in a great big fix. Even though she whispers too loud. We're all glad she's part of our crowd.

Chuck Ward drives a white convert.
All he knows is how to flirt.
He has his eye on a certain girl,
She seems to have him in a whirl.

Now we come to our last pal.
It's Theima Weber a real nice gal!
At playing checkers she's real neat.
But we all know she wins and also gets beat.
